

Flexible Half Day Workshops

Overview

Do you need to integrate professional development workshops into your school schedule? Schools request flexible half day workshops to...

- Offer professional learning bursts within a staff retreat or teacher professional development day.
- Provide a series of monthly professional learning opportunities to a target group of people.

Facilitated by professional coaches, these workshops are interactive and practical, offering a chance for your team to widen their skillset and gain new strategies in a wide range of soft skills. Our coach facilitators differentiate the learning to your context and ensure that all participants are actively engaged.

Workshops can be delivered in person at your school or virtually. You can choose your preferred timing - morning, afternoon or twilight.

There are 33 different workshops to choose from, each targeting a different soft skill.
